

Musician of the Day: Wyatt Lema – Support Local Artists

By Ken Abrams - March 23, 2020

As the Coronavirus deepens, touring musicians are unable to play live gigs, the major source of income for many. For the duration of the crisis, we'll be highlighting a different local musician/band here daily.

Today's "Musician of the Day" is singer-songwriter/guitarist Wyatt Lema. His musical resume includes work with the bluegrass ensembles Banana Bunkhouse Boys and Neon Valley Boys, folk/country duo Wyatt and Sharp and the rock n roll band Snafu.

Lema just released a new CD of original music, Destiny Road, which features "vignettes of everyday life and dreams – a little country blues, some rock and roll, and ballads from the heart." Click here to listen and consider supporting this RI artist. Lema's album is also available on Spotify.

Ken Abrams

<https://whatsuprhodeisland.com>

Lifestyle Editor Ken Abrams writes about music and more for WhatsUpRI, WhatsUpNewp, The Bay, SO RI and FolkRadio.com. He also hosts "The Kingston Coffeehouse" radio show every Tuesday from 6-9PM on WRIU 90.3 FM.